HUMANITAS

A silhouette of a person with arms outstretched, holding chains, against a sunset background. The person is standing in the foreground, with their arms extended horizontally. They are holding two chains, one in each hand. The chains are made of dark and light-colored links. The background is a bright sunset with orange and yellow clouds. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong silhouette effect. The overall mood is contemplative and hopeful.

*All that you see,
both divine and human,
is one.
We are parts of the same great body.
Nature created us from the same source
and to the same end.
She imbued us with mutual affection
and sociability,
she taught us to be fair and just,
to suffer injury rather than to inflict it.
She bid us extend our hands
to all in need of help*
